TEMPORARY · CALCULATED JANUARY – MARCH, PAID APRIL 2027

What is Retroactive Payment?

During January, February and March 2027, eligible payments are first calculated using the old basic salary.

When the new salary takes effect in April, the difference between the old and new basic salary amounts is calculated and paid retroactively in April.

You don't lose the difference — you receive it in April.

Applies to Overtime Allowance · On-Call Allowance · Shift Allowance · Security Allowance · Ramadan Bonus

NEW CYCLE · APRIL 2027

Merit in the implementation year

15 months instead of 12

The 2026 implementation year covers 15 months instead of 12 months.

ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLE ONLY

Approved merit percentage: 5%

5% ÷ 12 × 15 = 6.25%

Applies to the implementation year only

5% is used only to show the calculation. It is not a guaranteed or standard rate.

Permanent enhancements

EFFECTIVE JANUARY 2027 · AND CONTINUING

Salary Advance

One Basic Salary Advance, once per year. Repayment was previously limited to 4 months.

Repayment period extended from 4 to 10 months

BEFORE 4 months

NOW up to 10

Vacation Allowance — three ways to receive it

On your request
Any time during the year, once per year — without waiting to use 50% of your leave.

Automatically
Paid when you have used 50% of your annual leave balance.

At year-end
If neither of the above applies, it is paid at the end of the year (March).

More flexibility and more choice in when you receive it.
